Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Once again I must apologize for the delay in writing you, but I have had some trouble getting Nov. 21 off from work, and I didn't want to respond until I could be sure. I was [redacted] supposed to work that day, but I finally got someone to switch with me, so I hope it isn't too late to set up a meeting on that day.

If your plans are still the same for that day, I think what you said in your letter would be fine. Perhaps we could even have lunch together, if you could work that in.

It shouldn't be a problem for me to find directions to Jim Lesar's [redacted] office, because although I don't know D.C. that well, I know a lot of people that do.

If everything sounds O.K. to you, I give you my phone number below to call me [redacted] and give me details. I get home from work at 5:00 P.M. so the best time to call me would be from 5:30-6:00 P.M. I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely Yours,

Donald A. Jeffries
